February 2020

Fulham District Nurses Association

Founded in 1966, Fulham Good Neighbour Service has its roots in the Fulham District Nursing Association.

The founding date of the Fulham District Nursing Association is recorded as either October 1919 or April 1920, so we are celebrating more or less the centenary of this organisation. It was created with funds from the Fulham War Memorial Trust Fund, established in the wake of World War I. The Mayor of the Metropolitan Borough of Fulham at that time wanted to raise £20,000 for a memorial to the fallen and the construction of a memorial hospital. However, the required sum was not raised and the War Memorial now located in Vicarage Gardens of All Saints Church, Putney Bridge Approach was constructed instead. The total raised from Fulham residents was £3,625 and the balance of the funds was to be used to maintain the Memorial via the newly created Fulham War Memorial Trust and some to set up and fund the Fulham District Nursing Association.

In 1966, the then-named London Borough of Hammersmith took over the provision of health care within the area, and the Fulham District Nursing Association was consequently dissolved. However, its funding body, The Fulham War Memorial Trust Fund, permitted the balance of its income to be transferred to any other charitable purpose for the inhabitants of the Borough. Thus, funds were directed to the newly established Fulham Good Neighbour Service which has continued ever since.

Spotlight on the Carers Group

Our carers group takes place every Wednesday between 10:30-12:00 at Rosaline Hall. The group is opened to current older carers and ex-carers and offers an informal opportunity to chat, find out about other activities in the local area and make new connections. The group is regularly attended by 5-9 members and we are keen to encourage more carers to attend. Please help us spread the word and encourage anyone who may be interested to join us.

Fulham Cross Girls' School

On Wednesday the 18th March 2020, Fulham Cross Girls' School is organising a Drop Down Day and they are inviting Fulham Good Neighbours to talk to the students about living in Fulham as an older person and the importance of the community. It is a wonderful opportunity to connect with some of the younger residents of Fulham. If you could represent us at this event, please get in touch.

The event is hugely popular and attracts around 9,000 local residents.
