

DECEMBER NEWSLETTER 2024

Annual General Meeting 2024

We're delighted to have celebrated another year of achievements at our AGM. A huge thank you to our Trustees and Speakers, Robert Fryer and Nick Outred, and our CEO, Flora Taylor, for sharing invaluable insights into the charity's operations and vision for the future.

We were honoured to welcome H&F Deputy Mayor Daryl Brown, who delivered a wonderful speech echoing the Mayor's commitment to supporting older and disabled residents in Fulham. The Deputy Mayor also unveiled the replica of our mural 'Fulham Through the Seasons', a project lead by Roopa S Basu and created in partnership with Higgins Partnership at their Hartopp and Lannoy site.

This stunning piece of artwork, reflecting the rich history and creativity of Fulham through the talent of our Art Club members, many of whom are born and bred in the borough, will now reside permanently in Rosaline Hall for all to enjoy.

Thank you to everyone in the FGN community who attended, from beneficiaries and volunteers to trustees and supporters. Together, we've made this a year to remember, and we look forward to continuing to celebrate and build on our collective successes.

Artists' Corner

*It's Christmas again and so we must shop
Sometimes until we cannot ever stop
Is it about shopping
I do think it is not*

*The birth of a baby and a new beginning
Celebrate it as it should be
And love thy neighbour but not literally*

*A wonderful happy time of year
When we hope the world can find peace
It would be to all of us so dear*

*A Christmas Tree is sent to give thanks
For a time when help was needed
And selflessly given by all the ranks*

*We pray for the flashpoints around the globe
And hope they find solutions to problems
So they can thrive and grow in their probe*

*To find joy and peace wherever they are
People are people in any land
We wish you all peace and good health from afar*
