Welcome to our July newsletter –

and the imminent launch of our crowd funding campaign for Solar Panels at Rosaline Hall. Solar panels have halved in cost in the last decade while energy bills continue to rise. Investment now will enable us to reduce our carbon footprint, promote sustainable energy consumption into the future and reinvest energy bill savings back into our community activity. A similar project at the Masboro Centre has all but reduced their bills to zero. Projected benefits per annum include over a ton of carbon savings, almost 4,000 kwh generated and up to £500 energy bill savings! If we can demonstrate community support the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham (LBHF) will donate up to 50% of capital costs. A pledge of as little as £2 will enable us to build our case. We hope to go live with our campaign within the next month.

Climate Change Week

Jean Greenaway

– remembered by Ruth for her immaculate dress sense and as a popular member of our Lunch Club, sadly passed away last month. She will be sorely missed.

Her daughter Lesley tells us: Jean lived in Fulham from a young age. Her son Brian played for Fulham FC. She was a much loved and respected member of the Fulham community. Jean was a devoted mother and grandmother and always fun to be around. Her family love and miss her greatly.

Gordon Hale – sadly passed away in June. He is remembered by our volunteer Andrew Michaelides: Gordon was an extraordinary man, very intelligent with a wicked sense of humour and infectious laugh. He joined the second world war as soon as he could and later wrote various books which I had the pleasure of reading. Once we were talking about the book I read a few days before - a book he had not re-read for decades - and when I got some facts wrong, he corrected me as if he had read it a week ago.

I thoroughly enjoyed going to see him and I think he looked forward to my visits too. I was so pleased I managed to see him at the home a couple of weeks ago, and also very pleased that he recognised me and we had a proper chat. I will miss him as one misses a close friend. Dominic, Gordon's son, said of his
