HERE TO HELP

Leaving a legacy to Fulham Good Neighbours

Mary Atkinson was one of our longest serving volunteers and a lifelong Fulham resident. She was a volunteer for over 30 years. For the last 20 years Mary helped out in our office every Monday; regardless of the weather, she would always be there assisting with statistics and accounting duties. This she did without the aid of a calculator, her figures were always spot on. Mary was straight talking and modest with wide interests and a great sense of humour!

Sadly Mary passed away in 2013 aged 91. Through her dealings with us Mary could see the massive contribution our services make to the local community and she kindly left Fulham Good Neighbours a legacy in her will to ensure the continuation of those much needed services.

Why make a legacy to Fulham Good Neighbours?

We are a local organisation, established in 1966, with deep roots in the community and a thorough understanding of local issues and needs. We offer a variety of services and supports and have a very broad client base.

We can increase the impact of your donation by pooling it with other gifts and grants.

Here to help

Leaving money to a charity creates a fitting memorial to your life and the causes that matter to you. Giving a legacy to Fulham Good Neighbours enables you to leave a gift that will benefit people for generations to come. Charitable legacies are exempt from inheritance tax.

How does it work?

A good way to support Fulham Good Neighbours is to leave a legacy to us. This money will help to provide an ongoing income for the continuation of services for the foreseeable future.

Who benefits from our work?

- Older adults
- People with disabilities
- People with mental health needs
- Vulnerable members of the community.

What kind of will gifts can I make?

There are a number of ways to help our charity through your will:

- You can leave money or shares in property
- You can give the net balance after other obligations have been met
- You could arrange for your gift to come to the charity only after the lifetime of someone such as your spouse.

We recommend you seek advice from a solicitor if you are interested in leaving a legacy in your will.

List of local solicitors is available on request.
