Fulham Good Neighbours

The charity enriches the lives of older people and people with illnesses and disabilities, that live in Fulham. We address the needs of vulnerable people on low incomes via outreach, centre-based and online services. Fulham Good Neighbours is recipient of the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service, the MBE of the voluntary sector.

Services include community meals, home repair and decoration, gardening, telephone and in person befriending services, shopping and errands, appointment escort, advocacy and signposting. We host digital inclusion groups, exercise and cultural classes and events. In partnership with local agencies, FGN hosts information sessions on issues such as pension credits and fraud awareness. Fulham Good Neighbours has 1,300 registered beneficiaries of which 400 actively use our services annual. We work with up to 200 volunteers of which 50 are highly active.

About the post of Volunteer Co-ordinator

You'll recruit, induct and coordinate volunteers and support their recruitment for all charity projects. You will also lead our Good Neighbour Scheme and Befriending projects. The team is based at a busy community centre from where it offers a range of services to older and disabled people living in Fulham, London. Much of our work is delivered by volunteers, so this post is critical to our service delivery.

About you

You will have experience in supporting volunteers and have strong organisational and communication skills. You will be pro-active and diligent and able to solve problems as they arise. As a 'first point of call' for people getting in touch with FGN, you will have a welcoming, and compassionate demeanour. You'll be confident to represent FGN at our clubs and local events (partnership meetings, volunteer recruitment drives etc). You'll enjoy working with older and disabled people and be empathetic. As a small charity, it's essential that staff are happy to picking up tasks of other team members, if needed.
